

“Short Notice? No problem, Work and Training can provide staff and help reduce your businesses downtime”

TEMPORARY RECRUITMENT

At Work and Training we have an unrivalled pool of casual staff, who are experienced and can adapt to their allocated work environment. They're available 24/7 and accessing them is as simple as making a call. No matter what contingencies need to be covered, we'll get you the people you need, when you need them.

Expert casual service 24/7

Need staff now? We're only a phone call away. Even outside normal business hours, our team of industry expert consultants are on call for you.

Quality casual staff

All our casual staff are industry experienced, so when they arrive they'll immediately work to your advantage, this means less training required, saving you time and money.

Want the same people back?

No problem. We can provide the consistency you need. When you call us again, we'll get you the same staff to return to your business.

3 hour guarantee

We're so confident in the quality of our people we offer a 3 hour guarantee on every placement. If you're dissatisfied for any reason, let us know within the first four hours and there's no charge.

Health and Safety

All our casual staff have completed Work and Training's general OHS induction before coming to you. If you have site-specific inductions, we are happy to organise those too.

“We’ve got all the people you need,”

THE BENEFITS OF A CASUAL

Flexibility

We understand your needs, people get sick, they take holidays and there simply aren't enough of them during the busy periods.

You could lose a lot of money in lost time with a permanent employee.

Why not hire a flexible casual staff member to meet your staffing needs?

The benefits of a casual

As the below chart illustrates there is a lot to think about when hiring a permanent employee.

In addition to the extra salary costs there are a range of leave entitlements.

Our casual employees make it easy for you to manage your staff and reduce the overall costs to your business.

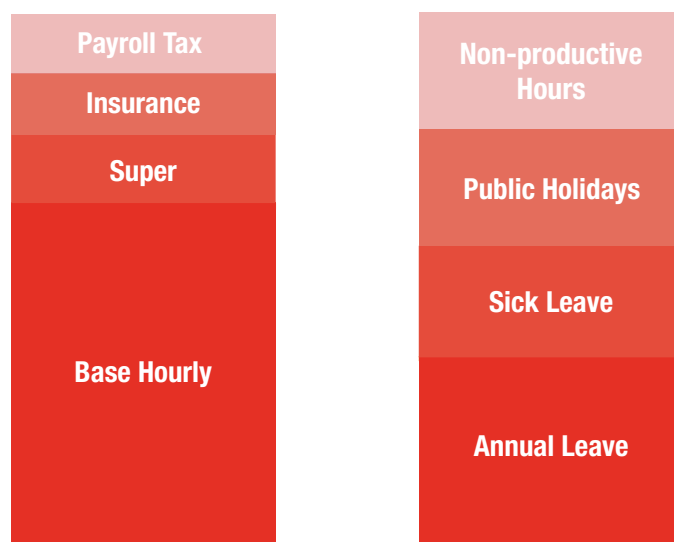

You pay for casual staff on an as need basis.

Get access to the best people

We're one of Tasmania's best recruiters for a reason. We have years of industry experience, a huge pool of candidates and real advertising power. All of which leads to a better end result.

When you've been in business for as long as we have, you attract many talented people. That's why our extensive industry database and advertising power make for a bigger, better pool of candidates, ready to put their talents to work for you.
